MISCELLANEOUS READING. Charlie; and the Robin's Song.

One summer morning early, When the dew was bright to see, Our dark-eyed little Charlie Stood by his mother's knee.

And he heard a robin singing

In a tree, so tall and high, On the topmost bough 'twee swinging, Away up in the sky. 'Mamma, the robin's praying, In the very tree-top there; Glory! Glory! it is saying, And that is all its prayer.

But God will surely hear him, And the angels standing by, For God is very near him, Away up in the sky." "My child ' God is no nearer To the robin on the tree. And does not hear him clearer

Then He does you and me.

For He hears the angels harping In sun-bright glory drest, And the little birdlings chirping Down in their leafy nest.' "Mamma, if you should hide me Away down in the dark,

And leave no lamp beside me, Would God then have to hark? And if I whisper lowly, All covered in my bed, Do you think that Jesus holy Would know what 'twas I said ?

" My darling little lisper, God's light is never dim; THE VERY LOWEST WHISPER, IS ALWAYS CLOSE TO HIM."

Now the robin's song was filling The child's soul full of bliss; The very air was trilling
When his mamma told him this. And he wished, in childish craving, For the robin's wings to fly;

To sing on tree-tops waving;

So very near the sky. -Child at Home. THE ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE Steam Job Printing Office,
